Letters In Solidarity

"Let us remember that our union is strongest when we care not only about the contract we bargain, but about the people standing beside us." Read more in Letters in Solidarity.

The future of California's public schools and healthcare is on the line, and our schools can't afford any cuts. Read more about why educators across the state are standing up to say: Vote YES on Proposition 3!

It's easy for voters to get lost in a ballot full of propositions, and we'll need to talk to our communities to make sure they understand what's at stake for our students and our schools. Voters listen to educators... will you help get the word out?
